

OPEN AUDITIONS

Remembering Uncle Scrooge

An original musical adaptation of Dickens' A Christmas Carol

Saturday, September 15 and Sunday, September 16

Bel Air Armory

37 N. Main Street in Bel Air

2:00 P.M. - 5:00 P.M.

Registration begins at 2:00 P.M.

- Roles for males and females between the ages of 9 and 20 years
- Many roles available for main characters and chorus
- Prepare two songs of contrasting tempo or style
- You will be asked to do a cold reading
- A resume and photo are not required but are helpful
- Rehearsals every Tuesday evening and Saturday afternoon at the Maryland Conservatory of Music in Bel Air
- December 7, 8, 9, 14, 15 & 16 performances at the Bel Air Armory
- There is no cost to participate.

Presented by the Center for the Arts, this youth theatre production is written and directed by Marge Phillips and co-produced by the Center for the Arts and the Maryland Conservatory of Music.

Returning after sold out performances in 2006, this holiday dinner theatre offers a delightful theatre experience combined with a holiday meal. Also planned is a Children's Matinee Performance with a menu chosen with children in mind. Catering is by The Open Door Café.

Tickets on Sale October 1, 2007

For information: 410-838-2177 or info@centerfortheartsharford.org

